WEEK FOUR

NEHEMIAH 2:19-20, 4,6

Nehemiah and Sanballat

SAY
THIS

Stay focused on what needs to be done.

DO
THIS

DRIVE TIME

Make a special trip to grab some ice cream or any special treat and tell your child you are going to celebrate! What are we celebrating? Ask them to think about what God has done this week in their life and talk about it while enjoying your special dessert. If they have a hard time thinking of an idea, prompt them with something you have seen!

REMEMBER THIS

"Work at everything you do with all your heart.
Work as if you were working for the Lord."
Colossians 3:23a, NIV

21 QUESTIONS TO GET TO KNOW YOUR KID NOW

To influence your kids in the future, you have to get to know who they are today. The problem is, kids change constantly. No one knows this better than the parent of a toddler who begs to go to the library one week and throws an all-out tantrum in the middle of story time the next.

Maybe your toddler loves anything with wheels now, but by the time her birthday rolls around, you may be surprised to find she couldn't care less about the brand new train set you saved up for.

Which means our job of getting to know our kids never ends. To make that a little less overwhelming and a little more exciting, we have put together a list of 21 questions to get to know your little kid better. Write them on strips of paper, fold, and choose at random to discuss during cuddle time or in the car. However you choose to use this list, just remember to never stop making an effort to get to know your kid today.

21 QUESTIONS to Get to Know Your Kid

1. What are your favorite things to do with your free time?
2. Who do you like to spend time with the most?
3. What's something that really scares you?
