Being the Disciple Jesus Needs

Salvation is God's gift to us. Discipleship is our gift to God. We can do nothing to earn or to be worthy of our salvation. It is a gift. We can do much to live in a manner worthy of our salvation.

Christian faith begins as a gift from God. God gives us our faith. We get to exercise it. Exercising our faith is about living out the example of following God that we see in the example of Jesus and the apostles.

We come into the world, not all we should be. God, through a process of discipleship, helps us to become more that we can be. It is about vision, prayer, intentional self-discipline and reformation through a process of receiving and responding to the Grace of God. Grace from God is the reformative agent at work in our lives.
