A Celebration of Freedom

July is the month in which we celebrate the Freedom and rights of individuals in this country. The move toward freedom and Democracy is one that has taken many years. Monarchies, Oligarchies, Despots, and Totalitarianism of many sorts have dominated the world. All of these governmental systems have taken their toll on individual rights and freedom of speech.

This Sunday's sermon looks at a freedom we do not always think about, the freedom that is ours because Christ has come into our world. It is spiritual freedom. It is freedom from legalism, from the tyranny of laws, from religion that denies us our humanity and the freedom from our fear of death itself.

St. Paul shares with the church at Rome what it means to be truly free. The church has sought, through the centuries to share his understanding of freedom with integrity and genuineness.

He lives, He lives, Christ Jesus lives today!
He walks with me, and He talks with me
Along life's narrow way.
He lives, He lives, salvation to impart!
You ask me how I know he lives?
He lives within my heart.
