Stakeholder's Supper-Ian and I would like to invite everyone to join us on Thursday, August 24 at 7 PM in the fellowship hall for a covered dish supper. We will celebrate our mission teams and share our pictures and stories. You will be able to see what our missions' teams accomplished on our 2017 mission trips. We are so appreciative of everyone who supported us with their prayers and their gifts and their words of encouragement. It certainly would not have been possible without you! Please join us for our annual Stakeholder's Supper. We hope to see you there!

The Bible Shows Us Life...and Us

If you want to read a book that shows you nothing but ideals, do not read the Bible. It shows us snapshots of life that embarrass, offend, and contradict our notions of living in polite society and living whole healthy lives. The Bible, to be honest, shows us, us, at our best and at our worst.

This week I will conclude what I started last week with the story of Joseph. It is a story of arrogance, intrigue, poor judgement, conspiracy and last but not least, the grace of God at work in human history.

Come join me as we follow Joseph, the son of a less than perfect father, Israel, as he is in a position of power and influence in Egypt. He has the opportunity avenge his brothers' betrayal but will he act upon this opportunity? How will God act in this story?
