Being In His Service

When we join the church, we take vows to uphold and to support the church with our prayers, presence, gifts, service and testimony. This is our way of affirming God has placed a calling upon our lives and this is one to service. People who follow Jesus are called disciples. They look to Jesus as the one whose life and teachings they want to be normative in their lives. Jesus came on the scene 2000 years ago, not to start a new religion, but to help the people understand God more clearly. He imparted this purpose to his Disciples then sent them out to share with all who would listen.

Those who are sent by the master are called apostles. Their job is to replicate the master's teachings and examples and help others to follow them as well.

Our calling is to what Jesus teaches and to share his teachings with others. It is not that we have to be highly educated or specifically trained to do this. We share what we know, with confidence God will do the rest.
