

The flowers on the altar are given to the Glory of the Father and in loving memory of Ruby Lockwood by her daughter, Sandra. Her love of family, friends and the FUMC were the centerpieces of her life.

Please remember to cancel your Wednesday Night Supper reservation by Monday each week if you will not be there. This is to keep food waste to a minimum. Thank you!

A Contentious Conversation with God

This past weekend I was part of a Men's Emmaus Walk at Dooly Campground. The Emmaus Walk is a spiritual experience designed to help Christians get closer to God and become better leaders and servants in their local church. One thing we discover on these walks is there are people of faith who have a stormy relationship with God. Many are angry with God. Some argue with God for much of their lives. They do not give up their faith in God but many have issues with God that are not easily put to rest.

Today, we are going to talk some about this. We will look at Moses and his own relationship with God and how he and God had words...not so kind words with one another.

against us. And lead us not into temptation,

He lives, He lives, Christ Jesus lives today!
He walks with me, and He talks with me
Along life's narrow way.
He lives, He lives, salvation to impart!
You ask me how I know he lives?
He lives within my heart.
