Generosity Sunday Next Week

Next Sunday, December 3, will be a special day. Rev. Mark Magoni, the Chaplain and Vice President for Church Relations at the United Methodist Children’s Home in Macon will be our guest speaker. He will come to share with us about God’s abundant Joy in giving to us and speak of God’s Grace in saving humanity from the powers of sin and death. Mark will guide us in our thinking and praying as we carefully and prayerfully fill out our estimate of giving cards in preparation for our budget year 2018.

We often wonder about what we have been given and the simple answer is everything. All we have comes from God. Our life, our family, our talents, our food and water and our homes; these are all gifts from God. God makes them possible for us. The people who are friends with us are God’s gift to us.

Living in an attitude of Thanksgiving helps us to know how blessed we are. This attitude connects us with the source of our gifts. This attitude also shapes our thinking about how we give through the church.

Please be in prayer this week as we prepare to make our commitments for next Sunday. Look at your checkbook and see what you are giving presently. If you are not Tithing, look at stepping up to Tithing. If you are Tithing, look at stepping beyond Tithing toward the ideal Jesus taught us, Proportionate Giving; giving in proportion to what has been given to us.

Please be in prayer about what God would have you give to His work in this world, through this church.
