The Love That Beckons and Challenges

Every time I begin to feel like I have come close to making it in the righteousness department, I read the text from Matthew 5 and realize that Jesus calls us to go deeper. I do not believe he is trying to burden us for one minute. Is he holding the ideal before our eyes? Yes. He is also reminding us of the great love God has for us.

Jesus speaks a prophetic word to us with this calling. The prophet speaks to God's people for God...always to edify the people and help them to remain faithful to the covenant that binds them to God and to one another.

We will be looking at the 5th chapter of Matthew's gospel and ponder anew how we are called to love. It is full of compassion, and there is a strong challenge for us.

Morning Prayer & The Lord's Prayer Rev. Grantham

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come. Thy will be done on earth, as it is in heaven. Give us this day, our daily bread. And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, and the power and the glory forever.
(choral Amen)
