The Simplicity of Our Faith

The apostle Paul was an educated man. He was better educated than most of the people he dealt with. To many people, he differed in his statements about what the Christian faith is all about. It is a simple trust that God made us, cares about us and from the beginning of our existence has been seeking to help us stay in relationship with him.

Jesus is the most powerful effort of his to keep us in relationship with him. Jesus is God, in the flesh, showing us how to live, how to treat one another and how to relate to God. Jesus dies on the cross to show us how willing God is to make a sacrifice that benefits our lives. One man who is righteous, goes to the cross and dies, one time, as a sacrifice for all persons for all time.

This is called atonement. Some have broken this word down into at one ment. His work on the cross makes us one with one another and with God.
