EASTER SUNDAY

Our Identity as Christian People

It is very hard to go from tears to celebration but that is what Easter is all about. Easter is our day. It defines us. We are the people of the resurrection. We are the people of hope. Our hope is in a risen savior, "whose in the world today," as the old gospel hymn says.

Our faith is not in a dead martyr who stood for much then died. Our Faith is in a savior who lives in our lives and whose power and presence is still very much alive. His power and presence is what gives us hope. His grace and compassion embraces us. His forgiveness is real for us.

Our lives are lived with courage and determination because his spirit lives within us. We long for a better world because his dreams fill our minds and his values direct our paths. Hell and Death no longer cause us to fear because we have the confidence of our salvation which is in his hands. It is his gracious gift to us, and he stands up to vouch for us before the judge of the universe, God.

I trust in this risen savior. You can too.
