

A Note from Pat McGlone

Sometimes thank you isn't enough but it's all you've got. Such is the case as I try to put together the words to express our gratitude for your generous gift, your words of encouragement and expressions of love. The FUMC family will forever be in our memory and heart. You have given us a tremendous treasure of friendship and home, and we loved the time that we were able to share with you. As we look forward to what God has in store, we are immensely grateful for the part that you have played in our lives.

In Him,
Pat and Cheryl McGlone

Membership Vows

"I agree to uphold and to support this congregation of the United Methodist Church with my prayers, presence, gifts service and testimony." So goes the vow to membership. That last part gives us reason to pause and ponder just what it is for which we are signing up.

To testify is to stand up and make proclamation of that in which we believe. It means to speak the truth and to tell our story. It means to reveal what we know to be true.

In the days of the Institutional Church; a time most of us remember so well; a time that served the Kingdom of God so well; a time that has now come to an end; there was little expectation that we needed to testify about anything. The professional clergy did this for us. Our culture moved us toward the church. All institutions in our culture were part of an organized effort to help us become Christian. This day is over.

We now live in a missional culture; a culture more like the first century AD; a culture when we the church must learn again how to make Disciples of Jesus Christ for the Transformation of the world. Our own mission statement says; We Love, We Grow, We Serve for Christ. This is our calling to intentional Christian service and Testifying for Christ to a world that often does not know how much it needs Christ.
