My Good Friends,

As many of you are aware, Lisa Coop & Matthew will be relocating to Houston, TX where Greg has taken a job with the YMCA as District Executive Director. Lauren, of course, will remain at Florida State University.

We as a congregation would like to thank Lisa for her 9 years of ministry and for the work she has done with our children and adults, as well as in the church office. We have grown and come closer to God with her presence here. In so many unselfish ways, she has demonstrated Christ to us. Greg, Lauren, and Matthew have also been a blessing to this church.

Part of the way we would like to thank her is with a love offering. If you would like to participate in this love offering, please make your check payable to the church and mark it "Love Offering for Lisa". This gift will be presented to her on Sunday, June 25th. Her last day of employment is Friday, June 30th.

In Christ,
 Stephen B. Grantham, Senior Pastor

Definition

What we look for in life is meaning and purpose. Without these we flounder and wander. We live our lives in desperation or resignation. We want to know our life has meaning.

Many years ago, I was riding in the car with my father, from Glenwood, GA to Vidalia on US Hwy 280. On the side of the road, I spotted a hollow log. I had seen them in pictures. I told dad what I saw. Seeing this as a teachable moment he said to me, "Son, there are many people in this world who are as hollow as that log." I wasn't looking for a sermon but got one anyway.

This life lesson has often come back to me as I have been dealing with people in ministry situations. The choices they have made and the emptiness they are feeling in their lives is only filled by a sense of purpose.

Genesis is that part of the Bible that helps us to see and to know who we are and whose we are. It is that place in the Bible we read to answer the basic questions of existence.
