Welcome Kathy McCollum

At the 2015 session of the South Georgia Annual Conference, Dr. Billy Oliver retired as CEO of Wesley Glen Ministries. He had been there for 12 years and, according to him, "Learning what a ministry to Developmentally Disabled adults was supposed to be was like drinking from a fire hose." He was faithful to his task and a few months later passed on the torch to Mrs. Kathy Reese McCollum.

Kathy and I graduated from LaGrange College together in 1981. As a member of the Board of Trustees of Wesley Glen, I was proud to welcome her to be the new CEO of Wesley Glen. After working for AT&T for several years as an engineer and manager, she has come to offer her wonderful management experience and business acumen to Wesley Glen. She brings great compassion and insight to this position as well as a realism that is helpful to making this ministry all it can be. She is working with LaGrange College on a Master's Degree in Fund Raising and her desire is to put those skills to work for Wesley Glen.

Kathy is married to David McCollum, a CPA and they call Macon their home. They are members at Riverside UMC. In her "spare" time, Kathy has learned to play the harp. She has also worked with children's choir in her congregation. Please welcome Kathy and be prepared to give an offering to Wesley Glen.
