Important Times and Seasons

As I write this message it is Labor Day, a day when people all over the nation take time away from their work to vacation, cook out, commune with friends or travel to be with loved ones. Many use it as the last day of Summer Vacation Season.

It is a national tradition. It is a time set aside for rest and recreation. It is a day for not doing work.

We like to remember special days and season in our lives to remind us of where we have been, what we have done and how God has been at work in our lives. We develop calendars with these special days set aside for special consideration. Advent, in the life of the church helps us to prepare for the coming of Christmas. Christmas reminds us of the birth of Jesus. Our whole Christian year takes part of the story from scripture and helps us to remember them in the order in which they take place.

This Sunday we will talk about Passover, a Jewish festival that should rightly be in the vocabulary of every Christian. Why? It is part of our story.
