When God Calls Us To Change

The "C" word for many people is not "Cancer." It is change. Change is a scary thing for many. It means giving up something we love. Sometimes it means accepting something new with which we are not familiar.

I remember the first time I made a cell phone call in my car. It was from a Bag Phone I got at Radio Shack. It was cumbersome in comparison to what I have now. Yet it kept me in touch with Sheri when I had to be out of town. The church secretary could get hold of me if there were an emergency. Coverage was spotty but it was better than not having one.

I welcomed the changes made as new versions came out and were smaller than previous versions. Now it even has a calendar, a calculator, a camera and I can access the internet from my cell phone. It also keeps track of my steps. My first bag phone did none of this.

God calls us to change for the same reasons. Things are better for us when our world changes to suit God's ideals. We call this salvation.
