9:00 & 11:00 AM Worship
 3rd Sunday after Pentecost/in Kingdomtide

Coming to a new community I have to make some assumptions about the nature of our congregation. While being in the ministry of the church for over 20 years those assumptions come from the commonality of the congregations I have served. We claim to be followers of Jesus Christ and we try to live in obedience of God's Word. If you ask different members what that looks like, you might get many different responses. I say that we all follow the same calling and how appears depends on each individual. Christ calls us to deny ourselves and follow him. I myself am working on that "deny" part. It's not easy, it takes time, it takes help. It is through discipleship that we become more like Christ. It is not enough to hear God's Word, but we must come away changed, live our lives differently, and be obedient.
