The Pastor is Traveling

It is not very often that I go out of town and even less frequently I go out of the country. This is my first time. March 3-11 I will be in New Zealand with my brother Mark. We live 9 hours apart and seldom get to visit with one another. He offered me a chance to go with him to New Zealand. I ask for your prayers and best wishes as we travel to this distant land and explore a part of the world neither of us has seen before.

While I am out, Rev. Joe Smith has agreed to cover for me. If you have any pastoral needs that I might normally meet, please call the office or Joe. He is a gracious and kind-hearted man who has graciously consented to help me as I travel.

Our own, Mr. Ian Smith will be speaking today. He has worked as a coach with the Packers and is Assistant Principal at R. B. Wright Elementary School.

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed
