 Day of Pentecost

Holy Spirit Come Possess Me

In the closing days of Jesus' physical presence here on earth, he made a promise to his disciples. He said, "In the days ahead, you will receive a paraclatos, a comforter, a reminder. Wait on this source of power for doing the work to which I have appointed you" (my paraphrase). We Christians call the Holy Spirit the third person of the Trinity. We celebrate Pentecost Sunday as The Birthday of The Church.

Jesus wanted his disciples and us to know we would not embark upon the Great Commission (to go into the world and make disciples of all people) alone. The work Jesus did, we will do also. It will be the Holy Spirit that empowers and motivates this work in our lives. It is the Holy Spirit that encourages, restores, and energizes our efforts. It is the Holy Spirit that brings to our minds the teachings and lessons Jesus sought to teach us.

Let us have a great day of celebration.
